UIS MUN 2k26

“Imperium Verbi” The Power of the Word

A new chapter begins.

UIS MUN 2026, the second edition of United International School's flagship Model United Nations conference, returns with a greater vision, a sharper purpose, and a belief in the power of diplomacy to shape the world.

Building upon the legacy of its inaugural edition, UIS MUN 2026 transforms the conference floor into an arena where ideas are tested, convictions are challenged, and diplomacy becomes the instrument through which change is negotiated.

Imperium Verbi, the power of the word, stands at the heart of this edition. In a world shaped by narratives, negotiations, resolutions, and rhetoric, the ability to articulate an idea is itself a form of influence.

Every speech has weight. Every argument has consequence. Every word can alter the course of a debate. UIS MUN 2026 is more than a simulation of international affairs. It is an experience of leadership, strategy, negotiation, and intellectual confrontation, where delegates are called upon not merely to represent, but to persuade, negotiate, and lead.

The second edition marks the beginning of a new era for UIS MUN, one defined by substantive discourse, uncompromising debate, and the pursuit of diplomatic excellence. The stage is set. The floor awaits. Let your words hold power.

The Power of the Word

LETTER FROM SECRETARY-GENERAL

Dear Delegates and Members of the Executive Board,
It is with immense pride and honour that I welcome you to UIS MUN II.

UIS MUN is more than a simulation of diplomacy. It is a space where ideas are challenged, convictions are tested, and words have the power to shape the room.

To our Executive Board, I trust you to uphold the highest standards of fairness, procedure, and substantive debate. Your judgement will define the committees you lead.

To our delegates, come prepared not merely to speak, but to think, question, negotiate, and challenge. Defend your positions with conviction, but never be afraid to reconsider them.

The Secretariat has worked to create a conference defined by rigorous debate, meaningful diplomacy, and excellence.

“The power of words is not in how loudly they are spoken, but in how long they remain after the room falls silent.”

So speak with purpose. Challenge the room. Make your arguments count.

When the dais calls the house to order, let your words carry the room. When the final gavel falls, let your arguments be what remain.

Welcome to UIS MUN II.

Welcome to Imperium Verbi — the Power of the Word.

Yours sincerely,

Martin Saji Sebastian

Secretary-General

UIS MUN II

LETTER FROM DEPUTY SECRETARY-GENERAL

Dear Delegates and Members of the Executive Board,
It is with immense pleasure that I welcome you to UIS MUN II

A Model United Nations conference is more than a simulation of diplomacy. It is a space where ideas are contested, convictions are tested, and the responsibility of representing a nation rests upon every delegate.

Over the course of this conference, I hope you engage not merely to speak, but to listen, negotiate, question, and contribute meaningfully to the discourse within your committees.

To the Executive Board, I look forward to seeing you uphold the standards of procedure, fairness, and substantive debate that define an exceptional committee. To our delegates, I encourage you to approach every motion, caucus, and negotiation with purpose, conviction, and intellectual curiosity.

As the Secretariat, we remain committed to making UIS MUN II an experience defined by rigorous debate, meaningful diplomacy, and the pursuit of excellence.

“The biggest risk in life is not taking any risk at all.”
Take the risk. Raise the point. Challenge the room. Leave behind an argument worth remembering.

When the Secretariat calls the house to order, the room will listen. When the final gavel strikes, the record will remain.

Agenda: The Question of New Caledonia

Delegates, welcome to the United Nations Security Council. The ongoing political and socio-economic dynamics in New Caledonia present a critical test for self-determination, governance, and regional stability in the South Pacific. Following decades of decolonization efforts under the Nouméa Accord and recent contentious referendums, tensions surrounding sovereignty, indigenous Kanak representation, and electoral reform have re-emerged on the global stage.

While proponents of existing administrative frameworks emphasize stability, constitutional order, and economic partnership, advocates for full sovereignty stress the fundamental rights of indigenous self-determination, equitable resource distribution, and long-term peace.

Key Focus Areas:

- Self-Determination & Governance: Evaluating mechanisms for referendum legitimacy, constitutional reform, and political representation for indigenous communities.
- Conflict Prevention & Regional Stability: Addressing local socio-economic grievances and preventing civil unrest while upholding human rights and security.
- International Oversight & UN Charter Principles: Balancing territorial integrity, decolonization frameworks, and the UN's role in monitoring regional self-determination processes.

Navigate these complex socio-political dynamics, examine state and regional precedents, and forge collaborative diplomatic solutions to ensure long-term stability and justice.

UNHRC

United Nations Human Rights Council

Agenda:

Deliberating upon transnational tech monopolies accountable for violating the civil liberties of users.

Delegates, welcome to the United Nations Human Rights Council. The rapid growth of transnational tech monopolies has transformed digital platforms into primary arenas for public discourse and commerce.

However, these massive corporations increasingly threaten fundamental civil liberties—from algorithmic censorship and mass surveillance to the unauthorized harvesting and monetization of personal user data.

While tech giants argue that centralized control ensures platform security and content moderation, critics warn that unchecked corporate power compromises freedom of expression, erodes digital privacy, and evades state accountability.

Key Focus Areas:

Digital Rights & Surveillance: Establishing protections against unauthorised data exploitation and invasive user tracking.

Corporate Accountability: Balancing free expression with content regulation without encouraging arbitrary corporate censorship.

Global Governance: Developing international legal frameworks to hold cross-border tech monopolies answerable for human rights violations.

Analyze the legal frameworks, examine state and corporate precedents, and draft policies to safeguard individual civil liberties in the digital age.

UNODC

United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

Agenda:

Addressing the Recruitment and Trafficking of Persons for Forced Participation in Illicit Drug Distribution Networks

Delegates, welcome to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime. The global security landscape faces a grave challenge as transnational organized crime groups combine synthetic drug trafficking with sophisticated illicit financial networks.

The rapid proliferation of synthetic narcotics—produced efficiently from precursor chemicals—generates billions in untraceable profit, fueling cross-border money laundering, corruption, and underground banking systems.

Addressing this convergence requires dismantling supply chains, closing financial loopholes, and overcoming jurisdictional barriers that allow criminal syndicates to operate with impunity.

Key Focus Areas:

Supply Chain Interdiction: Regulating precursor chemicals and disrupting illicit synthetic drug manufacturing and distribution.

Financial Intelligence: Targeting money laundering channels, trade-based financial crimes, and crypto assets used by criminal networks.

Cross-Border Cooperation: Strengthening international legal frameworks, data sharing, and law enforcement coordination to dismantle transnational syndicates.

Delegates are urged to evaluate global enforcement gaps, track financial flows, and forge comprehensive strategies to dismantle these interconnected criminal operations.

CCC

Continuous Crisis Committee

Agenda: Medellin Cartel war

Delegates, welcome to the Continuous Crisis Committee. The state of Colombia stands at a critical juncture as the Medellin Cartel wages an all-out asymmetric war against the government, democratic institutions, and civilian infrastructure.

Fueled by immense narcoterrorist wealth and private paramilitary forces, cartel operations have disrupted governance through targeted assassinations, widespread bomb attacks, and the systematic corruption of judicial and political systems. The blurring of lines between illicit narcotics trade, insurgency, and political terrorism presents a severe threat to regional stability and national sovereignty.

Containing this crisis requires swift strategic responses, agile crisis management, and decisive intelligence operations to neutralize high-value targets while restoring public order and institutional integrity.

Key Focus Areas: Counter-Narcoterrorism Strategy: Neutralizing armed cartel networks, securing vulnerable urban centers, and dismantling paramilitary operations.

Judicial & Institutional Fortification: Protecting government officials, judges, and law enforcement against corruption, intimidation, and targeted violence.

Intelligence & Joint Operations: Coordinating law enforcement, military assets, and international intelligence sharing to disrupt cartel logistics and leadership.

Delegates must act decisively, adapt to rapidly evolving crisis updates, and execute high-stakes strategies to restore state control and suppress narco-insurgency.

AIPPM

All India Political Party Meet

Agenda:

Deliberating upon the measures to ensure integrity of public examination systems in light of recent leak allegations and the resultant student unrest.

Delegates, welcome to the All India Political Party Meet

The integrity of national public examinations has faced severe public erosion following widespread allegations of paper leaks, system compromises, and systemic administrative oversights.

These vulnerabilities have sparked widespread student protests, heightened public distrust, and raised urgent questions regarding institutional accountability, standardized testing security, and regulatory oversight across testing agencies.

Restoring public faith requires establishing standardized security protocols, modernizing examination infrastructure, and enforcing legal penalties for institutional malpractices.

Key Focus Areas:

Security & Infrastructure Modernization: Transitioning to secure electronic delivery, encrypted question banks, and audited examination centers.

Legal Frameworks & Accountability: Enforcing strict penalties for paper leaks and establishing independent bodies for grievance redressal.

Institutional & Policy Reform: Streamlining national testing bodies to ensure administrative transparency, operational efficiency, and fair opportunities for students.

Delegates are urged to engage in rigorous debate, evaluate structural vulnerabilities, and collaborate on actionable policy frameworks to protect the integrity of national examinations.
